Structure of China Module

Module 6, October 20-27

Design Business in China

The module in Shanghai is an integral part of the training. However, the expenses of travel, accommodation and meals are not included in the training fee. The accurate costs for travel and accommodation will be confirmed when the exact number of participants is known. You can also make your own travel arrangements if you prefer. Please mark on your application form whether you will join the group or travel individually.
